

Dear Friend of PS/IS 217, the Roosevelt Island School,

The PS/IS 217 PTA will be holding its 10th Annual Spring Auction Event on Saturday, May 18, 2019!

Why Support our Auction?

All money raised at the auction directly supports PS/IS 217 students and programs that enrich their school experience. The generosity of businesses and families like yours has made our Auction the most significant fundraising event for our PTA, and has allowed our students to continue enjoying vital programs, such as music, art, science and other enrichment programs.

We accept all Donations!

Donations can range from goods and services, gift certificates and tickets to entertainment, museums and cultural events, jewelry or electronics, to a week in a vacation home, calligraphy lessons, yoga and fitness classes, and restaurant or airline vouchers

We recognize our Donors and Sponsors!

- All donors and sponsors will have their name or business name and logo prominently displayed in our online auction catalog. The catalog, along with a display of donor names and logos at the auction, will be viewed by hundreds of members of our school community and attendees at the auction.
- All donors will have their name or business name displayed on our website, social media, and with our school community mailing list - reaching over 1000 people!

Please fill out the attached a donation form to make a donation to our event. Completed forms can be handed to a member of our school community for delivery to the school, placed in the PTA mailbox, or mailed to:
